

The Loop

Though Easter is a season and not merely a Sunday, it can be hard to sustain the enthusiasm when attendance drops on “low Sunday.” That said, the source of our joy is not in the size of the crowd but the greatness of the gift that Christ has given us. We have the forgiveness of sins, and where there is forgiveness for our sins, there is also life and salvation. We are held captive to fear, to the guilt of our sin, and to the power of death until Christ enters our locked rooms, shows Himself to us, and we, by the power of the Holy Spirit, rejoice in our Lord and God.

We are now providing a Facebook LIVE streaming broadcast of the Sunday 8:00 am service.

Dear Mount Olive family,

At a time like this, thank you seems to be grossly inadequate. It is with deep gratitude that I say I deeply appreciate your prayers, cards, words of comfort, and even the hugs given these past several weeks. Your love and support for me and my family conveys joy in the midst of sorrow that is ours through the faith which lives in us. I continue to remember you in my prayers which prove to be a comfort to me in that through those prayers I recall your love for my wife, Jo.

I would like to give a special thanks to our beloved Pastor and the prayers and ministry extended to me and the members of my family.

May the love of God continue to be shown to each other as we have celebrated the victory of faith, a victory which we shall also experience at that time appointed by our beloved Father in heaven.

Once again, thank you and may the Lord bestow upon us all joy and comfort in the promises of life everlasting.
